

What to Do When You're Stuck In...

ORD

Home to organizations big, medium, and small, the Windy City sees its fair share of business travelers – but delays, cancellations, and other unfortunate events sometimes leave them hanging in the airport longer than they'd planned for.

If you happen to find yourself with some extra time in Chicago's O'Hare, don't sweat it.

Check out these unique-to-ORD hotspots and have some fun while passing the time:

EAT

Tortas Frontera | Terminals 1, 3, & 5; Gates B11, K4, & M12

Don't miss the tortas and guac bar at this Mexican restaurant once crowned the best airport restaurant in the country by Conde Nast.

Garrett Popcorn | Terminals 1 & 3; Gates B8 & H2

With flavors such as Buffalo Ranch, CheeseCorn, and Cashew CaramelCrisp, there's something for everyone at this Chicago cult favorite for snacks.

DRINK

Publican Tavern | Terminal 3, Gate K1

Grab a seat at this lowkey bar to enjoy a sampler of local craft brews or glass of red or white sourced straight from the Midwest.

Bubbles Wine Bar | Terminal 3, Gate H4

A glass of bubbly, cheese and charcuterie plates, and live jazz piano – really, does it get any better than that?

SHOP

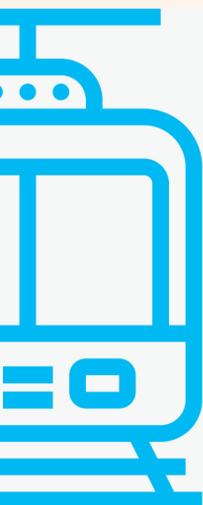

Hoypoloi An Uncommon Gallery | Terminal 2, Gate E5

Browse intriguing and original artwork from creative locals at this unique gallery and shop.

CHILL

YOGA ROOM | Terminal 3, Mezzanine Level

Weary business travelers in need of a good stretch can get their Om on in this 15x16' relaxation space.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Hop on the Blue Line L train to get directly from the airport into the heart of downtown Chicago.

Calling all caffeine-o-philes! There are a whopping 18 Starbucks located inside O'Hare.

The airport's aeroponic garden (the first of its kind in the nation!) grows plants and veggies in water and mineral nutrient solution instead of soil.

FUN FACTS

While ORD certainly has plenty to see and do, it's never fun to be stuck at the airport. A better way to manage flight disruptions is to get onboard with TripActions' 24/7 proactive support – visit tripactions.com to learn more.
